Revenge

I can understand if u hate somebody n want to get even Fury can blind u and to commit a crime b driven But at end is it worth it to lose ur temper and precious freedom?
With every evil act the forces of darkness unleash a demon Don't do on to others what u don't want to be done on to u Learn to forgive n b respectful to anyone too
if u think santeria or witchcraft Is ur only answer
U r messing with a doble edge sword
That will bring u danger what u reap u will definately sow If u didnt know that now u know I Learned to cope with my struggle n life circumstances
From a dull situation I can find the lightness
I been to The botton n suiced I have contemplated Thank God I was stronger than I have estimated I guess my main point is to never give up n b positive Even if everything looks bad n all u hear is negative Just hang in there trust in God n put ur faith to the test
I assure u he will never forsake u n take care of the rest
He doesnt know how to lie n it's not a son of a human to regret
He loves u unconditionally don't u ever forget To all those people I insulted please forgive me I should have known better
To ask for ur pardon is why I wrote this humble letter
God bless everyone n thank for reading this n taking the time
I created it with love n that pleasure was all mine May God give u lots of blessings
So there's no stressings Se que aca todos leemos y hablamos Español pero cuando UNO esta inspirado no hay porque detener necesidad de poner Los sentimientos en papel total al que no le guste me vale Si supiera mas idiomas escribiria de lo grande que es Jesus y de lo idiotas que somos Los humanos de inventarnos religiones y darle el credito a la virgen o santos y demas creencias supersticiosas que solo demuestran la gran ignorancia de nuestra parte he dicho
